4. This is not the first visit to [redacted] but the source of finance for his travels is not known. Similarly, he makes many international/long-distance calls from public telephone booths: the cost of these alone is believed to be considerable. [redacted] apparently, uses public telephones extensively, because he believes that his private instrument is being monitored. b6 b7C

5. Separate information concerning [redacted] is that he attended the 18th Annual Conference of the World Anti-Communist League (WACL) between 9th and 13th September 1985 at the Registry Hotel, Dallas, Texas, USA. He is also supposed to have associated with other similar anti-Communist/Right-Wing organisations.

6. Our Head Office comment that [redacted] first arrived in the [redacted] and has permission to remain here as a refugee until [redacted] the Seychelles National Movement (SNM) which was founded in London in November 1984 following a decision by the Executive Committee of the Movement Pour La Resistance (MPR) to create a properly structured political wing to represent the political aspirations of their organisation. The MPR is believed to have been involved in various plots to over-throw the present government in the Seychelles. b6 b7C

7. Our Head Office would be interested in your comments on this report.
